

THE LABRADOR RETRIEVER CLUB

SHOW GUNDOG TRAINING DAY

Thursday 17th June 2010

At the Claydon Estate Nr. Bicester by Kind permission of Sir Edmond Verney

Meet at 9am for 9.30am start

The Labrador Retriever Club takes their responsibility to encourage the working ability of all Labradors seriously.

Would you like to find out about or improve your gundog training in a friendly environment with a helpful and supportive trainer who understands about show Labradors?

Would you like to have some fun with your Labrador and see what he or she is capable of achieving and help develop their natural retrieving instinct?

Would you like to find out about the basic training needed to work towards the show gundog working certificate or the working gundog certificate?

Have you started some training but need some help to progress further?

If the answer to ANY of these questions is YES then this day is for you.

AN OPPORTUNITY NOT TO BE MISSED
